

The Global Citizen Summit

The Santa Fe Council on International Relations is proud to bring the Global Citizen Summit to Santa Fe on Saturday April 28th, 2018 at St. John's College. This celebration will bring together over 200 high school and college students to explore and honor their global identities—the layers we all bear that are truly global—through word, art, food, and performance.

GLOBAL CITIZEN SUMMIT

*We eat the world. We wear the world. We connect with the world every second of every day.
Let's celebrate the world we all carry!!!*

The Summit begins at 4:30pm in St. John's Great Hall, with interactive games, a marimba band, and a flash mob. Following this will be a dinner of globally-themed food, and then we move back to the Great Hall for a variety show featuring slam poets, musicians, dancers, and speakers from the TED stage. The brilliant Issa Nyaphaga, artist, activist, body-painter, speaker, and humanist from Cameroon (pictured) will emcee the evening.

Issa Nyaphaga, the Summit's Emcee

Tickets are FREE for students.

For non-students, tickets are $25 for the evening, including dinner, and $16 without. They are available at the door, and in advance here:

www.sfcir.org/2018gcs

New Mexico Arts is a proud sponsor of the Summit.